

The Stealth Revolution of Religion & Government in Last Days IV

Fred R. Coulter—July 25, 2009

Now you heard me say repeatedly—which I'm sure you're learning with what we're doing now—You cannot solve spiritual problems by political means. And the reason that the politics are as bad as they are, is because there are spiritual problems. The reason that the country is in the state that it is in, is because of the sins of the leaders in religion, and government, and the people in a general sense. I think it was interesting that 57-million people voted for Barack Obama. That shows that the attitude of that majority of people is very compatible with what Barack Obama has himself. However, we need to realize that there is something above and beyond the people that you see, and the ones that you think are the leaders, and the ones that you think are those who are running things. It's a very different proposition, indeed.

Let's come to Ephesians 6, and let's see what the situation is, and let's notice that in the New Testament there is not one command for anyone who is in the Church to go ahead and start a movement to change a government. We can get all passionate about the political things that are going on, and the shenanigans, and there are a lot of them. Why are they that way? Why is there this pall of lies and deceit and blatant lying? Now as I said in the last message, it dawned on me what Barack Hussein Obama did when he was trying to explain the situation concerning the Cambridge police and Dr. Hayes, and what went on there.

In the first place he spoke without knowledge of what was going on, which was not a good thing to do. In the second place, when he tried to give an apology, he could not give an apology because he cannot admit that he was wrong. He'll kind of edge up to it. And Delores and I were watching that and listening to the words, and it was fantasy-land the way that he gave the explanation. And it dawned on me, someone will say, 'You're lying,' and he would say, 'No, I'm not.' Yet he is. How could it be that he doesn't realize that he's lying? The way people do it is this: they have their own level of reality of how things are. They view themselves as impervious to mistakes. So when they try and address something that is an obvious wrong, what they do is this: they create a narrative in their minds that is creating their own reality of what went on and what was said. And so therefore, this excuse of what went on, without an apology, which was supposed to be an apology, and turned out to be filled with lies, to the one telling it, it was not a lie. It was the imagined reality as the person saw it.

So this tells us there's much more that's going on than what we see. There's much more taking place behind the scenes, and above the scenes that we're not privy to. So what's going on above the scenes and behind the scenes that's causing all of this trouble—and as Delores and I were talking—this great rush to get everything done. One man said the 'change that we can believe in' is not the change in the way things are done, but it is an enforced change of what we believe. Why is that happening? Well, it's happening as collective punishment against this nation and the Anglo-Saxon people in general. As someone said from Britain, 'The U.S. is five years behind the U.K.'

So, here we find the true source of the problem. Ephesians 6:12: "Because we are not wrestling against flesh and blood... [We are not dealing with the ultimate power brokers of human beings.] ...but against principalities... [And the principalities are high-ranking demons who run this world under Satan the devil.] ...and against powers, against the world rulers of the darkness of this age, against the spiritual power of wickedness in high places." That's what's going on in the world. Then it tells us what we are to do. It doesn't say go join a political party and vote the bums out.

Now let's see something else concerning the people that we see, and let's understand that Satan is guiding and manipulating them, inspiring them, causing them to create policies. And then these things are in turn drafted into law, and we'll find out who does that. Now I covered a little bit of it in the last message, but we'll look at it a little bit more.

So let's come to 2-Corinthians 4, and let's see who is the leader behind the scenes of all the world rulers, not some, but all. Now we are to be able to see and discern these things as they transpire. Let's see what he's talking about concerning the stealth revolution within religion, but also we can take a principle since Satan told Jesus that all the nations were his to give to Him if He would worship him. Remember, this tells you the ones who have that power have to worship Satan; otherwise, they don't get that power.

2-Corinthians 4:1: "Therefore, having this ministry, according as we have received mercy, we are not fainthearted.... [So one thing I want you not to do is get discouraged and think that this is too much for you to handle, as I mentioned in the last message. It's not.

- God is with us

- God is for us
- He will help us

Remember, these problems have a source of their evil and wretchedness greater than human beings, and greater than what we can do, and greater than politics. So we have to look to God in everything. So Paul is saying of his ministry:] ...For we have personally renounced the hidden things of dishonest gain, not walking in cunning craftiness, nor handling the Word of God deceitfully... [Which all the Christian-professing religions do.] ...but by manifestation of the Truth... [And this is what we want in everything:

- The Truth of the Word of God
- The Truth of the understanding of God
- The Truth of the prophecies as we see them unfold

Not our way, not our schemes, not our schedules, but God's.] ...we are commending ourselves to every man's conscience before God. But if our gospel is hidden, it is hidden to those who are perishing; In whom the god... [Now I want you to understand the word for God, the true God in the New Testament is 'ho'—which is the; 'theos'—which is God. Right here in the Greek where it says]: ...In whom the god... ['ho theos'] ...of this world has blinded the minds of those who do not believe..." (vs 1-4).

So now let's ask the question, why do some people think that with political means they can bring about a spiritual correction? You can't do it! We're going to see that the whole system that we're talking about, the super-imposed government that is over all governments of the world, is already so far developed that only the return of Jesus Christ is going to get rid of it. It must come to the full. It must be fully developed, it must be the crowning glory of man and Satan working together. That's what it's coming to.

"...the god of this world has blinded the minds of those who do not believe, lest the light of the Gospel of the glory of Christ, Who is the image of God, should shine unto them" (v 4). Because if they truly believed God, believed the Word of God, and they were in politics, then they would certainly do the things to reflect what God wants us to do and be. I think about the only one person—and Delores and I have talked about this seeing the things that have gone on—the only one person who has a real desire for Truth, as she understands it, is Sarah Palin. That's why they go after her to destroy her, because she is a threat to all of them. So keep your eyes on what she does and what's going to happen to her.

In one book I'll show you a little later, one of the mistakes that happened that those in control of the political system had not counted on, was the election of Ronald Reagan. That caught them completely off guard. And so beginning in his second term, what did they do? What happened to Ronald Reagan? He became the target of all kinds of discrediting, rebellion, bad-mouthing—his wife and himself. Now they had their faults and mistakes, that's true. How connected they were with the spiritual things that were going on behind the scenes, we don't know.

Let's come here to 2-Corinthians 11:13. We've always applied this to religion, which is true, but let's apply it also to religion and to government. "For such are false apostles... [Now being false means you're hypocritical—right? Are there politicians who pretend to be something, but are not? Yes! Are they hypocritical? Yes!] ...deceitful workers ... [That's what we have going on right now. Not just here in America, but around the world.] ...who are transforming themselves into apostles of Christ." Now that's for the religious element.

But transforming themselves into the super-elite, which they are, who know what's best for everyone in the world. That's what's given out to all us little plebeians, if you could put it that way. "And it is no marvel, for Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light. Therefore, it is no great thing if his servants also transform themselves as ministers of righteousness..." (vs 14-15) 'Oh, we're doing this for your own good.' And if that health care thing gets through, then that is going to be a total monstrosity and disaster.

As I mentioned in the last message, Tom Daschle advised the President, when the President was seeking to appoint him as Secretary of Health and Services, and he would oversee the health plan coming in, he told him the reason that it was killed with Hillary was they let too many of the details out. 'So just talk in general terms, do not bring any details, and rush it through.' They even had some sections of it that they were blank pages. When some said, 'Why is this blank page?' 'Oh, we'll fill it in later.' Don't bother with the details. But that would absolutely change the nation, change the whole thing, not only of health care, but the whole situation with government. And if cap and trade goes through, that is the death-knell of the United States between the two of them. No question about it. 'Oh, but this is for your good. Oh, we're trying to save the planet.' It used to be global warming, now it's climate change. "...ministers of righteousness—whose end shall be according to their works" (v 15).

Now I promised that I would tell you who writes all the bills. I started with it in the third message. The way that came about was: Delores and I were watching the news, and 1,100 pages and no one read it! How could it be that no one read it, when the representatives and senators were the ones who were to write it. We kept asking each other, 'Who writes these?' They can't be writing them. Then when Henry Waxman said, when questioned about his bill that he's sponsoring, he said, 'Well, I haven't read it yet.' We looked at each other and said, 'How can that be?'

So I got up early one morning, and I was watching the television and here was this representative, I think his name was Burgess, from Texas, talking to the Fox News commentator, and complaining about Sheila Jackson. Because Sheila Jackson had gotten in line ahead of everyone and everything, and the day after Michael Jackson was buried, she already had a proclamation ready for the Congress to proclaim him as a great humanitarian. So he was complaining about it. The news person from Fox asked him, 'Well, how could that be?' He said, 'I don't know. The Legislative Counsel is busy writing all kinds of things, and I don't know how she got in there ahead.'

As soon as I heard Legislative Counsel, I said, 'Bingo! That's it!' So I called Ron, it must have been about 6:30 our time, but 9:30 back there. I called Ron Carey and I said, 'Ron, have you ever heard of the Legislative Counsel?' He said, 'No, I haven't heard of the Legislative Counsel.' I said, 'Well, why don't you go online and see what you can find out about the Legislative Counsel.'

So I'm going to read you some things about the Legislative Counsel. Some of it I read in the third message, so I'm going to continue on here and repeat just a couple of things. So here is official from their own website. So if you want to know what it is, you go online, and you go to: www.house.gov/legcoun/articles.shtml

Providing legislative drafting expertise to the House of Representatives.

So this tells you where the power lies, not in the senators, not in the representatives. They are only figureheads to carry out the marching orders (as we will see) of the group that runs all nations under Satan the devil. Now remember I said the first phase of the stealth revolution was Woodrow Wilson. He was managed by Colonel House.

The second phase was under FDR, I don't know who managed him, but I think FDR was so involved in it that he didn't need to be managed. Has anyone read his proposed second bill of rights? Go online, FDR, his second bill of rights. It will astonish you how far left he really was.

The Office of Legislative Counsel
About Us—Structure

The Office consists of approximately 40 attorneys and a support staff of about 15 individuals and is headed by the Legislative Counsel of the House. The Legislative Counsel is appointed by the Speaker of the House and...

Is supposed to be non-partisan. Do you think that Nancy Pelosi would select someone who was non-partisan?

...subject to the approval of the Speaker, appoints and fixes the compensation for the Office's personnel.

And I have the budget somewhere and it is approximately 400-million dollars for both legislative counsels. If you think that is bad, every state in the union has a legislative counsel. And if you think that is bad, I'll tell you how they equalize laws in all states. It's not by the representatives who have been elected.

The operation of the Office is many ways unique among governmental offices. There are no formal committees or departments. Attorneys in the Office naturally develop special expertise in certain areas of law. However, all attorneys are expected to cooperate with and assist each other in handling the workload of the Office. Many attorneys work in informal groups or teams of two or three to address a general 'zone' of federal law.

The Office is impartial as to issues of legislative policy...

I would assume just like the media is impartial to political parties.

...and does not advocate the adoption or rejection of any proposal or policy. In providing service to committees and Members, the Office will assist the committees, members, and their staffs in analyzing the effects of legislative proposals, but will not advocate any position.

That doesn't mean that they won't say, 'This looks like it's the best one.' Now have you ever watched any of the hearings, and you see the senators and representatives there, have you ever noticed in the background all those assistants that are running back and forth, and handing them papers and things? They help do some of that, but they are giving them the things from the Legislative Counsel.

The Office has been traditionally been career-oriented with usually low turnover among the legal staff. Experienced attorneys in the Office specialize in one or more areas of law and will normally handle requests for assistance in those areas.

Here's something else that they do: The Office is asked frequently... [Now this is from the Senate side.] ...to review drafts of bills prepared in Executive agencies... [paraphrased]

What is that? Any one of the Cabinet members, like Department of Education, Department of Health, and so forth, they work up laws and send it to them to rework and give to the Congress—House or Senate. Now the Executive Branch is not to legislate. That's unconstitutional—executive agencies or elsewhere. What is the elsewhere? Special interest groups, think tanks. How do we get all the legislation for the environmentalists? Sierra Club, PITA, 'Oh, we propose this.' The ones who are elected to do the job, do not do the job. They have no function, but to vote.

The question was asked: how do the 36 czars, that Obama has appointed, fit into it? It circumvents the congress in having to approve these people and so far, two of them are known Communists. There are probably more that are unknown. That's why we're marching down the road of the Soviet Union. And you will remember while the election was going on, I said that if McCain wins, it'll be Jimmy Carter times three. If Hillary wins, it'll be Jimmy Carter times five; and if Obama wins, it'll be Jimmy Carter times ten. And that if he got in, we would probably soon become the United Socialist States of America.

Remember, we are up against forces greater than us. So here are the people who are working to carry out those things. You can't elect them, you can't call them, you can't email them. They're behind the scenes. They have all the power in writing the laws—isn't that something?

History

The purpose of the Office of Legislative Counsel is to advise and assist the House, it's committees and members in the achievement of "clear, faithful, coherent expression of legislative policies." Our goal is to prepare drafts that accurately reflect the legislative objectives of the member or committee concerned, that are legally sufficient to carry out that policy and that are as clear and well-organized as possible under the circumstances.

Except the healthcare bill. And they won't even allow the Republicans to mail out that gargantuan chart showing how the government proposes to take over the health care. Because they don't want it out, because it might confuse the people with the facts.

Although this goal may not be achieved in every case, we seek, to the extent possible within existing time constraints, to improve the clarity and technical accuracy of the legislative product, avoid drafting errors, and reduce unnecessary confusion and litigation.

That is, unless you're rushed to do it, and get it through before the August 7th vacation date.

The office is neutral as to issues of legislative policy.... [How can that be?] ...Since our inception, we have provided... [And that was in 1916, I believe.] ...legislative drafting assistance to members representing all political viewpoints while maintaining confidentiality with each client.

But talking about it among themselves in their teams or two.

Professional legislative drafting in the House of Representatives began in 1916 as an experiment offered to the House by a professor at Columbia Law School, Middleton Beaman. The experiment was successful, and Mr. Beaman was appointed Legislative Counsel to the House in 1918 pursuant to an amendment to the Revenue Act of 1918. At first, the office focused primarily on tax legislation. Over the following decades, the work of the office gradually expanded to cover every area of federal law. The statutory charter for the office was enacted in the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1970. This was followed by an expansion in staff, and over time, a gradual change to the current specialization system within the office. Under that system, each attorney primarily handles legislative drafting requests in a specialized area of the law.

Which means that: the member of House or the Senate, who doesn't really understand it, will be clued in by the lawyer in the Legislative Counsel that specializes in that field.

Each attorney must be admitted... [That is to the bar.] ...to practice in a state or the District of Columbia. Promotions are made as individuals gain experience and demonstrate their abilities. The office also has a small paralegal and clerical staff to assist the attorneys...[That's about 35] ...and to perform functions ancillary to its principal mission. Appointments to all positions in the office are made without regard to political affiliation...

Then a communist could get in there, a Nazi could get in there—right? Yes!

...and solely on the basis of fitness to perform the work. The Legislative Counsel who is appointed by the Speaker of the House, appoints and fixes the compensations of the other personnel of the office, subject to the approval of the Speaker. The office is not under civil service.

The government of the United States has been hijacked, and it's not what you think it is. It is barely constitutional. All of these things circumvent what the founders of the country gave to protect us to keep things right. See, Satan is always there looking for a way around, and this is how he has done it.

Now here's a very interesting one. I know this is taking a little time, but I want to tell you something. This is so astounding, that it's going to take some time to soak it in.

How Our Laws Are Made: A Ghost Writer's View by Sandra Strokoff, Senior Counsel, Office of the Legislative Counsel, U.S. House of Representatives.

Frequently, on the floor of the House of Representatives, one will hear a Member refer to another as the "author" of a bill who was "carefully crafted" the language of the proposed legislation. Statements like these make me smile, because if the Members are the authors, then I and my colleagues in the Office of the Legislative Counsel of the House of Representatives are the ghostwriters.

It tells about how it was created, and so forth.

Members of the Office of the Legislative Counsel are bound by statute not to express views on or make policy with respect to legislation.

How could they help but do that, when you have representatives and senators that don't know anything? You see, this explains how someone like Senator Joe Biden stayed in the senate so long, because all he had to do was show up and speak and vote and everything else was done for him, as well as other senators, etc.

Our responsibility is to reflect the ideas of members of Congress accurately in legislative language. That isn't to say that we can't affect policy by pointing out the consequences or meanings of the printed word.

Because your elected representatives don't understand it—I add that in.

Trying to close loopholes before they open is a constant challenge. It is easy to overlook the consequences of the simplest word.

There are a lot of those simple words in the healthcare. 'Oh, you won't be forced to take the government plan, but if you change your private insurance, you can no longer get private insurance.' Then they specialize in areas of law. Here's the one that will blow you away:

We draft legislation for all sides on the issues at the same time... [Which means what? They are advising, they are taking sides.] ...both Republicans and Democrats, and factions within each party. We may be drafting the same legislation for different individuals. At times, it would be much more efficient to be able to hook up several different clients who want to do roughly the same thing at the same time, instead of having to produce multiple documents with enough modifications to make them look different. But we are strictly bound by the rules of attorney-client confidentiality. We are therefore frequently in the position of knowing what all sides are up to before anyone else does.

Now that's something. That is something! I'll let you go online and look it up. Now let's come to Revelation 2 and 3, and as I pointed out recently, the devil is after the churches is, Satan is. But also let's see how he is organized.

Revelation 2:9—this is to the Church at Smyrna: "I know your works and tribulation and poverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy of those who declare themselves to be Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan." What is the synagogue of Satan? If it was alive and well back then, did it just disappear? No!

Verse 13: "I know your works and where you dwell, where the throne of Satan is..." So he's organized. We already saw he has people working for him, and they appear righteous in religion, and they are do-gooders in politics, and political movements. And who are the greatest do-gooders? Liberals, who want to do everything for you, from the cradle to the grave.

Some of the things that they have in that health bill, it's just like that ad on television: the doctor wants to come in and help the patient, and there is a bespectacled bureaucrat to let the doctor know, ‘Uh, uh, uh, you can’t do that. Uh, uh, uh, you can’t give that medicine.’ And it’s sure going to happen that in order to save cost, because we know from the experiment that has gone on in Massachusetts, that it is already three times as expensive within six years from its initiation, than it was said to be, and it hasn’t saved anything. It’s destroying private healthcare insurance.

Church of Thyatira—v 24: “...have not known the depths of Satan...” Can you know the depths of Satan in religion, and know the depths of Satan in politics? Of course.

Revelation 3:9—Church of Philadelphia,: “Behold, I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who proclaim themselves to be Jews and are not, but do lie...” Does Satan have a gathering of men to carry out his work? Yes, he does! We will see and it will astound you. Please understand, that from the ranks of those people, they fill all the important spots in every government in the entire world.

(go to the next track)

Let’s come to Luke 11 and we’ll talk about again the religious leaders and also the doctors of the law. The doctors of law, to me, sound an awful lot like the Legislative Counsel members who write law. All those laws that don’t make any sense, all those laws: the IRS laws, the EPA laws, the Medicare laws, they wrote them all with all of their rules and regulations.

Luke 11:37: “Now while He was speaking, a certain Pharisee asked Him to dine with him; and He went in and sat down. But the Pharisee, seeing this, wondered why He had not first washed before dinner... [Because He’s going to make a point. Hands that have not been washed do not contaminate the food.] ...Then the Lord said to him, ‘Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and dish, but inside you are full of greediness and wickedness’” (vs 37-39). Isn’t that true of religious leaders and political leaders? ‘Oh, we’re clean.’ We just had the thing with the governor of South Carolina and others ad infinitum, and the former President of the United States, etc. ‘Greediness and wickedness,’ and it’s still amazing how they come to Congress or to the Presidency and they have average amount of things, and they leave and they’re multimillionaires. How does that happen?

So He says: “‘Fools... [That’s what He calls them, that’s what Christ thinks of them.] ...did not He Who made the outside also make the inside?... [Because God is the heart knowing God—isn’t He? He knows what’s going on.] ...Rather, give alms from the things that are within; and behold, all things are clean to you’” (vs 40-41).

- you love God
- you love your neighbor
- you believe God
- you live by His Word

All things then are clean. “‘But woe to you, Pharisees! For you pay tithes of mine and rue and every herb, but you pass over the judgment and the love of God.... [That’s sure true. Did they love Jesus? No, they crucified Him, condemned Him—right? Yes!] ...It is obligatory for you to do these things, and not to set aside those lesser things.... [you are to do all] ...Woe to you, Pharisees! For you love the chief seat in the synagogues and the salutations in the marketplaces. Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are as unseen tombs, and men who walk over them do not know it’” (vs 42-44).

Isn’t that true of politicians? They are never what they seem to be, because they have image. Someone in the number three message that I gave said, ‘Well, if they don’t write the laws, and they don’t do these things, what do they do?’ And I think Delores had the answer: they run down to the congressional barbershop, get their hair done for a $150, and put on their $2,000 suits, and run out and give a press conference, or go vote. What do they really do? ‘Unseen tombs,’ you don’t know what they do. And what’s in the unseen tombs? Legislative Counsel.

Verse 45: “And one of the doctors of the law... [That’s equivalent to a lawyer.] ...answered and said to Him, ‘Teacher, by saying these things, You are also insulting us’.... [So Jesus immediately apologized. No, He said:] ...‘Woe to you also, doctors of the law!.... [This is just like our legislatures and Senators and Representatives, federal, state and local.] ...For you weigh men down with burdens heavy to bear, but you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers’” (vs 45-46). So when asked the question to President Obama, are you going to sign up for the same healthcare as everybody else? No! And in the bill they specifically exempt all the Representatives and all the Senators, and they are entitled to go to twelve different companies to get their coverage and it’s paid for by the government. I wonder if they’re going to let them tax them, because that’s in the upper deluxe bracket? No, ‘will not touch it with one of your fingers.’

“‘Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, whom your fathers killed. Therefore, you are bearing witness and consenting to the works of your fathers... [And who is their father that Jesus said in John 8 that we covered last time? Satan the devil.] ...for they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs. Because of this, the wisdom of God also said, "I will send prophets and apostles to them; and some of them they shall kill, and others they shall drive out So that the blood of all the prophets, poured out from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zacharias, who perished between the altar and the house of God." Yes, I tell you, it shall be required of this generation. Woe to you, doctors of the law! For you have taken away the key of knowledge... [We could say today: you have violated the Constitution over and over again with your laws.] ...and you yourselves did not enter... ['No, we're all exempt.']. ...and you prevented those who were entering'" (vs 47-52).

Amazing!—isn't it? Now I want to tell you about two books. The first book is, Protocols of Zion. Now someone will say, 'Oh, that's a racist book.' Well, it's not, I've read it from cover to cover, every word. The Jews say, 'It's a forgery, we didn't write it.' The Russians say, 'We didn't write it.' But why is it that every proposal in here is coming to pass? You need to read all the Protocols of Zion. Let me give you the author: Translated from a Russian text, Victor E. Marsden. Then also there are some things in here that Henry Ford wrote in the Dearborn Independent. And because the Jewish lobby was so strong, they threatened to destroy his company unless he renounced what he put in there. Which proves the point: they have the political power. So I recommend that you read it. You're probably going to have to search the Internet for it. You might even find a digital copy somewhere, but read every word and don't take the think which says, which some people say, 'This is racist.' It is not racist. And as a matter of fact, there was a report out of the 100 most influential men in the world, and 50 of them were Jews. So that was not very well spread around.

There's another book that I'm going to read parts of for you, which is called, The Conspirators' Hierarchy. In other words, who are the men that answer to the powers and principalities? And who are those that Satan uses? There is a committee of 300, and guess where it is founded? In Rome! And it is over the Club of Rome. Have you ever gone online and looked up about the Club of Rome? You might do that.

The Conspirators' Hierarchy is written by Dr. John Coleman. Now you might go online and look him up. He's in Carson City, Nevada. This was published in 1997, the fourth edition. The purpose of this book is to show who runs the world. A lot of people won't believe it, so get the book and read the book. Ask yourself the question: Have these things happened? Are they happening? And if they are, then it's true.

The purpose of this book was to uncover what power it is that controls and manages the British and United States governments. I am thoroughly familiar with all the well-known secret societies such as the Royal Institute for International Affairs, the Council of Foreign Relations, the Bilderbergers, the Trilateralists, the Zionists, Free Masonry, Bolshevism, Rosicrucianism, and all of the spin-offs of these secret societies.

One of the reasons why the Committee of Three-Hundred has been so successful in concealing its existence from the broad mass of the American people, apparently few thought that there must be some kind of a coordinating controlling body that oversees and coordinates the activities of the local-level agencies. (pg III)

They didn't want to admit that there was a conspiracy.

Committee of Three-Hundred (pg 1)

What we did find... [Because he says he followed the principle of seek and find.] ...was that the people walk in great darkness....

That is the people in general and that's what the Bible says. Behold darkness covers the earth. And remember it's going to be the darkest before Jesus returns.

...mostly not caring or bothering to find out where their country is headed, firm in the belief that it will always be there for them....

And this is the way the largest population group has been manipulated to react and their attitude plays right into the hands of the secret government. So the government you see is not the government that really is. You've heard of the term: new world order. It's coming. This will tell you who it's going to be.

In order to get an idea of how vast and how pervasive is this conspiracy, it would be appropriate at this point to name the goals set by the Committee of Three-Hundred for pending conquest and control of the world. There are at least forty known branch offices of the Committee of Three-Hundred and we shall be listing all of them together with the description of their functions.

The Big Names (pg 13)

The Club of Rome is a conspiratorial umbrella organization, a marriage between Anglo-Saxon financiers and the old black nobility families of Europe, particularly the so-called nobility of London, Venice, and Genoa. The key is to the successful control of the world is their ability to create and manage savage economic recessions and eventual depressions. The Committee of Three-Hundred looks to social convulsion on a global scale, followed by depression.

Are we right at the edge of that now, or not?

As a softening-up technique for bigger things to come, as the principle method for creating masses of people all over the world who will become its welfare recipients of the future.

‘Oh, well, you shouldn’t be reading those things.’ Page 17 lays out all of their twenty-one objectives. I’ll read some of them.

1. To establish a one-world government, new world order, with a unified church and monetary system under their direction.

Not many people are aware, that the one-world government began setting up its church in the 1920s and 1930s.

2. To bring about the utter destruction of all national identity and national pride which was of principal consideration if the concept of a one world was to work.

Who declared that I am a citizen of the world? Who did he signal with that statement?

3. To engineer and bring about the destruction of religion, more especially the Christian religion, with the one exception their own creation as mentioned above.

Has that happened? Is Protestantism going down the tube? Has the Churches of God been scattered? Yes.

4. To establish the ability to control each and every person through the means of mind control, what Brezezinski called, Technotronics, which would create human-like robots and a system of terror.
5. To bring an end to all industrialization and the production of nuclear-generated power, and what they call, the post-industrial zero-growth society.
6. To encourage, and eventually legalize, the use of drugs, make pornography an art form, which will be widely accepted and eventually become quite commonplace.

Has that happened?

7. To bring about de-population of large cities according to the trial-run carried out by Pol Pot in Cambodia.
8. Suppress all scientific development, except for those deemed beneficial by the Committee.
9. To cause by means of limited wars in the advanced countries by means of starvation and diseases in the third-world countries, death of three-billion people by the year 2050, people they call “useless eaters.”
10. To weaken the moral fiber of the nation and to demoralize workers in the labor class by creating mass unemployment.

Where are we? Even some killing their own families because they lost their jobs and had no possible means of support.

11. Keep people everywhere from deciding their own destinies by means of one created crises after another, and then managing each such crises.

Is it strange that Raum Emanuel said, ‘We won’t waste a good crises.’

12. Introduce no new cults and continue to boost those already functioning, which means rock music gangsters, such as filthy degenerate Mick Jagger’s Rolling Stones, the gangster group known as the European Black Nobility, and all of the tavistock-created rock groups that began with the Beatles.

And those like the KISS. Do you know what the KISS. is? In the service of Satan. The Grateful Dead.

13. To continue to build up the cult of Christian fundamentalism begun by the British East India Company servant Ardabil, which will be misused to strength the state of Israel by identifying the Jews through the theory of God’s chosen people.
14. To press for the spread of religious cults, such as Muslim Brotherhood, Muslim Fundamentalism, seeks and to carry out mind-control experiments such as Jimmy Jones, and Son of Sam-type.
15. To export religious liberation ideas around the world so as to undermine all existing religions, but more especially the Christian religion.

Has that happened?

16. To cause the total collapse of the world's economy and engender total political chaos.... [That is about ready to happen.]
17. To take control of all foreign and domestic policies of the United States.... [That is fate accompli.]
18. To further support a supra-national institution such as the United Nations, the International Monetary Fund, the Bank of International Settlements, the World Court, and as far as possible make local institutions less effective by gradually phasing them out and bringing them under the mantle of the United Nations.
19. To penetrate and subvert all governments and work within them to destroy the sovereign integrity of the nations represented by them.
20. To organize a worldwide terrorist apparatus to negotiate with terrorists whenever terrorist activities take place.
21. To control the education of America with the intent and purpose of utterly destroying it.

Has that happened? Now, he brings all of that out in this book and how they did it. It's called outcome-based education. I will read no more, you get the book, you read the book.

Now, let's understand some things. Where will this lead? Let's also ask the question: Why is God going to take His wrath out on this end-time generation in the way that the book of Revelation tells us?

1. We all have the Word of God. If you have the Word of God in your house and you don't read it, you have a witness from God, and you have no excuse.
2. The turning away from God, as He points in one page here, that one of the things that has caused this nation to go down, and for them to gain the power and control over this nation and over Britain and over the world, has been abortion. So I'm not the only one that has said that.

So, where is it going? There will be a new-world order that will be here. How soon, we don't know, but it's getting closer all the time. And with the proposed G-20 international financial system, there will be a world financial system, which will eventually come into the mark of the beast.

Let's come to Revelation 13. We've been there before, but let's look at it again, because this is what is coming on the world. Now here is a beast that has seven heads and ten horns, and those ten horns represent the ten toes of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar saw, and was struck by the rock cut out without hands, and destroyed the image. And Daniel told Nebuchadnezzar, 'In the days of those kings, the God of heaven is going to set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed.' So rather than get depressed over this, look at it this way: the Kingdom of God is closer and we're going to take over, and we're going to run this world. That's what we have to be prepared for. We cannot solve it politically. We cannot solve it spiritually. It's already well in the grasp of Satan the devil and his henchmen. It's coming.

Revelation 13:1: "... and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.... [In other words, Satan is the origin of this. And it says right here Satan gives him his power.] ...And the beast that I saw was like a leopard, and his feet like the feet of bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion; and the dragon gave him his power, and his throne and great authority" (vs 1-2). Now we'll see how great that is. It is the new-world order, and it is the last system that's going to be on earth before Christ returns.

"And I saw one of his heads as if it were slain to death, but his deadly wound was healed; and the whole earth was amazed and followed the beast.... [The whole world's going to be brought into it. This is not some little thing off in a corner somewhere, this is worldwide.] ...And they worshiped the dragon... [Satan the devil.] ...who gave his authority to the beast.... [And what did he tell Jesus? 'If you will worship me, all of this will be Yours.' So that's how he gets it.] ...And they worshiped the beast, saying, 'Who is like the beast? Who has the power to make war against him?' And a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies was given to him; and authority was given to him to continue for forty-two months: (vs 3-5). That is after the deadly wound was healed.

Now notice what he's going to do. This is why Barack Hussein Obama is not the beast. He is not the antichrist. It doesn't mean that he is not against Christ. "And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name, and His tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven. And he was given power to make war against the saints, and to overcome them; and he was given authority over every tribe and language and nation" (vs 6-7). Now that's all-encompassing—isn't it? Yes, it is! The hierarchy of the Committee of Three-Hundred are those who are carrying out the policies worldwide in all nations to bring that about.

So read the book. You see, we live in a time where we have the whole Bible. We have a lot of information to us. We have ability to understand the prophecies, because we live in the end-times. That gives us a great responsibility, because God has said, 'To whom much has been given, much will be expected and required. Now remember, we are training for eternal life. We are training to rule this world. That's what it's all about. That's why you have to know that these things are happening. That's why you cannot look to any nation, any government, any politician, any religionist to save you from the things that are coming. You need the strength of God, the protection of God, and you need Him to guarantee that you'll be in the Kingdom of God.

Now notice how complete this is going to be. "And all who dwell on the earth will worship him, whose names have not been written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world" (v 8).

Now I'm going to give another sermon, maybe covering some more aspects of this, but let's notice what the religious leader of the world is calling for:

Pope Benedict XVI is now calling for a world government that has singular authority over all of humanity. It's interesting that his thrust is not to one nation or another, nor is it directed to the United Nations. The controversial papal statement came just before a meeting of the G-8 nations and the scheduled meeting between the pope and President Barack Obama at the Vatican on July 10.

In explicit language, and direct, the pope calls for a true world political authority to manage the affairs of the world.

What's standing in the way of that? The United States of America.

At the same time, however, the pope also warns that such an international order could produce a dangerous universal power of a tyrannical nature and must be guarded against somehow. The pope's call for a world political authority amounted to an endorsement of a new world economic order, a long-term goal of the old Soviet-sponsored international Communist movement. bloomberg.com highlighted the pope's call for a new world order with teeth.

Isn't that something! Now the last part of this:

Sounding like Obama himself, Pope Benedict says this new international order can be accomplished through reform of the United Nations organization...

Now remember the sermons that I've given in the past. What did I say how this would come about? A reformed United Nations. There it is right there.

...and likewise of other economic institutions and international finance, so that the concept of the family of nations can acquire teeth.

They're speaking it! They are wanting it! It's been prophesied in the Bible! Dr. John Coleman wrote the details of how it began and how it's being carried out today; and who are the ones who did it. And the book, The Protocols of Zion, was the precursor to it. So a lot of people are going to say, 'Well, it's the Jews.' No, it's not the Jews, it is all come together now under the auspices of the Club of Rome and the Committee of Three-Hundred. They control the world today, at their beck-and-call there will be a collapse of all financial systems to bring in a world international financial system. How soon? Don't know, but it can't be too far away.

Then what'll happen after that? After you have a world financial system, and remember what we've talked about with the mark of the beast: you've got to have a number. You need something greater than a social security number. If they have a one-world international bank, guess what you're going to have? You're going to have a checking account in that one-world bank with your particular number. That is the last step before the mark of the beast, which will be a chip in the right hand, or in the forehead, so you cannot buy and sell. And you will be controlled. Those who take the mark of the beast will give up their freewill and their free choice, and will become total vassal slaves of Satan the devil and the world system.

So that's why we need to understand these things. There's not too much more time to understand them.
